HOME DEPOT DONATES 800 BUCKETS TO ST. CLAIR CATHOLIC'S BUCKET DRUMMING MUSIC PROGRAM

Home Depot in Chatham will donate 800 buckets to the St. Clair Catholic District School Board, where they will be used as percussion instruments, as part of the music curriculum.

“You don’t need expensive instruments to make music,” says Paul Wubben, Director of Education. “Students can make great music simply by using everyday objects – like these buckets! This is a tremendous donation on the part of Home Depot.”

Home Depot has already donated 420 buckets, with a promise of 20 more per week for the next 19 weeks. At $5.95 per bucket, plus HST, the donation represents a savings to the Board of just under $5,400.

“We are very grateful for this tremendous donation from Home Depot,” says Jacquelyn McGlynn, a St. Clair Catholic music teacher. “It will supply enough instruments for our Grade 7 and 8 classes throughout the Board.”

A photo opportunity with officials from Home Depot, including a bucket drumming demonstration by students, has been arranged for Monday, November 1, 2010 at 3:45 p.m. at the Chatham Home Depot location, 8582 Pioneer Line.

Members of the media are welcome.
